

Parkour Convention 2023

Liability Waiver & Self-liability Declaration for Minors

_____ born on _____
First Name & Last Name of the minor (in print letters) Date of Birth

_____ born on _____
First Name & Last Name of the guardian (in print letters) Date of Birth

I hereby declare, as the legal guardian of the above-named child, that I consent to their participation in the Parkour Convention 2023 on Saturday, December 2nd, 2023 from 11 am to 7 pm.

Although anyone can learn the basics of parkour and the trainers and helpers on-site place great emphasis on the personal safety of the participants, there is still a residual risk.

I therefore confirm that my child's participation in the aforementioned event is at their own risk. I assure the sports health of my child and hereby expressly waive all claims - of any kind - from incidents, injuries, property damage, or consequential damages arising in connection with the participation in the aforementioned event, against the organizer, its employees, and the trainers and helpers of the respective offer. This also applies to voluntary participation in any workshop offers.

This liability exclusion does not apply in cases of intent and gross negligence on the part of the aforementioned group of people and in the case of mandatory legal liability.

Any illness and sudden changes in well-being, such as nausea, dizziness, pain, rapid heartbeat, or similar, must be immediately reported to the aforementioned group of people and, if necessary, training must be stopped.

Furthermore, I agree that photos and video recordings of my child for advertising and event purposes within the scope of the offer may be recorded and published.
